

Pain's Philosophy

This world shall know Pain. Almighty push!

1. Learn to embrace the fear of feeling about what it's like to contemplate what it is to know true pain. Because when I had nothing and no one – I always had pain.
2. There is no such thing as real peace! It's impossible as long as we live in this accursed world!
3. Because of the existence of love, sacrifice is born, as well as hate. When one comprehends, one knows pain.
4. Sometimes you must hurt in order to know,
Fall in order to grow, lose in order to gain
Because life's greatest lessons are learned through pain.
5. Love is the reason why there is pain. When we lose someone precious to us hate is born. Vengeance is the product of that hate and so death follows. But in death, there is only more death. This will give rise to more pains. In this cursed world we live in, it is a cycle of hatred that will not cease.
6. Religion, ideology, resources, land, spite, love, or just because no matter how pathetic the reason is it's enough to start a war.
7. Just by living, people hurt others without even realizing it. So long as humanity exists, hate will also exist. There is no peace in this cursed world. War is just a crime paid for by the pain of the defeated...
8. If there is justice in revenge, then that same justice will breed only more revenge... and trigger a cycle of hatred.
9. How can you say that you will never change? That you will not change, no matter how great the pain you face? Can you continue believing in yourself forever? Can you guarantee it? Can you have such faith in yourself?!
10. Love breed sacrifice... which in turn breeds hatred. Then you can know pain.

11. Even innocent foolish children will grow up in the face of pain until their thoughts and beliefs are the same as their doubts.
 12. Those who do not understand true pain can never understand true peace.
 13. Pain is the only way to teach, pain is the only solution to peace. If you want to know pain, you need to understand pain.
 14. Do you understand pain a little now? If you don't share someone's pain, you can never understand them. But just because you understand them doesn't mean you can come to an agreement. That's the truth.
 15. We are just ordinary people driven to act in the name revenge that we deem to be justice. But if there is justice in revenge, then that justice will breed only more revenge and trigger a cycle of hatred.
 16. Justice comes from vengeance but justice only breeds more vengeance.
